

THE OLD AND NEW — The Honorable Mayor Jasper McLevy (R) and Richard Ellis (L), who will reign as Mayor tomorrow in the annual Bridgeport Civic Day.

Dick Ellis Elected Mayor In Annual Bridgeport Day

University, Junior College Birthday's To Be Celebrated At Stratfield Hotel

Twin birthdays will be celebrated May 12 at the Stratfield Hotel as the Junior College of Connecticut celebrates its 27th anniversary, and the University of Bridgeport blows out the candles for the seventh time. The entire day has been named "Charter Day," and will feature a dinner sponsored by the University's Board of Associates.

Debaters Hold Final Meet Here

University Host To Fairfield Monday

A convocation to be held in room 101 of the Engineering-Technology Building at 4 P. M., May 3, will climax the University's Debating Society's seventh season. James Halsey Jr. and Gil Strunk will meet Fairfield's negative team to debate the National Debating Society's issue for '54; "That the United States should adopt a policy of free trade." The Society's negative debaters have a record of three victories against such outstanding colleges as West Point, New Haven State Teacher's College and Danbury State Teacher's College.

The second of the school's annual contests with Fairfield, Monday's meet will be what Society President James Halsey Jr. calls the most important occasion of the debating year. Not only will our debaters gain experience in working under pressure, but the student body will also have an opportunity to observe its debating society in action.

The motto of the society, since its inception in 1947, by its present advisor, Prof. William Banks, have been: "Think with Reason, Speak with Decision."

Among decisive speakers on this year's team are: for the affirmative, George Chamberlain and Harry Southwick; and for the negative, Mrs. Marion Frye and Gilbert Strunk.

Arnold Holds Reunion

Arnold College of Physical Education will hold its 69th annual Alumni reunion May 15, at the former Arnold College campus, Milford, Conn.

Beginning with registration at 9:30 A. M., the day will be devoted to an exhibition-dance demonstration at the Arnold Gym, a business meeting, a tour of the University of Bridgeport campus, dinner dance, social and square dancing.

Reigns Tomorrow

Defeats Vossler In Record Vote

Richard Ellis, Mayor-for-a-Day, will unseat Jasper McLevy, Bridgeport's socialist full-time Mayor tomorrow, as the University of Bridgeport celebrates Civic Day.

With over 450 students taking part in the voting held last week, Ellis won this year's Mayorship by a slim margin of 44 votes. The eight aldermen that will serve as the common council are James Faulkner, Jack Vossler, David Miller, Anne Spartan, Leonard Cocco, Richard Wright, Richard Watt, Nicholas Panuzio, and Alfred Munroe. These students will present bills in the common council chambers on various ways in which to improve the city.

The Political Relations Forum, which did all publicity work also conducted the entire election. An increase of 140 votes over last year's, was noted.

Ellis, a member of Alpha Pi Omega service fraternity, and a member of the swimming team will be the third student in the past three years to unseat McLevy. His predecessors have been Robert Weiss '52 and Victor E. Muniec '53.

Chairman of Bridgeport Civic Day was Ivan Schaffel, aided by Lester Sutton, Patricia Lait, Dianne MacDougall and Irving Sobolov.

Schedule of Events Planned For Gala Wistaria Weekend

Plans have finally been completed for the forthcoming Wistaria Weekend, which will be held May 7, 8, and 9 and promises to be the biggest weekend in the history of UB.

Annual Installation Set For Saturday

OCP Coronation: Twelve Veteran Knights Crowned

"Opening Night" for 12 new Knights will premier at 6:04, curtain time, Saturday evening at the Bridgeport Railroad station.

The members of the cast have been in rehearsal for years. Although some have had less time for preparation than others, all have had theatrical experience to insure an inspiring performance.

This production is the fifth annual first night for new members. When the final curtain goes down there will be 84 members who have experienced opening night jitters.

This saga, known as the annual installation of new members to the Knights of Thunder, honorary organization is composed of members of the University's theatrical productions.

The new members are Geraldine Bennett, Ellen Bloch, Lawrence Bluth, Philip Carruba, Gail Henderson, Paul Jepson, Klaire Knott, James Mehorter, Fred Mills, Rose Nobili, Pauline Scinto and Roger Vars.

Lionel Hampton will supply the music for the annual Wistaria Ball to be held Friday night at the Ritz Ballroom, at which time the queen, to be chosen from 21 candidates, will be presented. She will receive a gift donated by one of the local merchants and from then on will reign over the festivities, finally being crowned Sunday at the Pageant.

Saturday, weather permitting, dungarees and shorts will replace tuxedos and evening gowns. Aside from numerous fraternity picnics, and a baseball game with Fairfield, two student-faculty softball games are scheduled. One will pit the male members of the faculty against their student counterparts and the other game will be between female faculty members and campus coeds.

An alumni dinner will be held Saturday evening at Champ's Shorehouse while most of the undergraduates will be busy with fraternity affairs. Alumni Hall will be open for anyone who will be on campus.

Sunday, the Pageant will hold the spotlight, once again moving to Marina Circle. Last year it was held in front of Alumni Hall in conjunction with the dedication ceremony for that building. The queen will be crowned at the Pageant in the presence of the royal court. Beth Drexler, last year's queen will be in attendance.

The Pageant will once again be open to the public and a large crowd of parents is expected as the affair will coincide with Mother's Day. The Snack Bar in Alumni Hall will also be open Sunday afternoon.

Chorus To Perform

In addition to Dr. Henry's address, guests will hear selections by the mixed chorus and a reading of the University charter. Harold C. Main, newly elected president of the Board of Associates and William F. Simpson, chairman of the dinner committee, will preside jointly at the affair.

President Emeritus Everett E. Cortright, head of the Junior College of Connecticut, called this celebration "an unusually fine gesture on the part of the present University group to celebrate both charters; that of the Junior College of Connecticut, and the University of Bridgeport."

"There can be nothing but much joy as the two groups mingle together to commemorate a great event," he continued, "I regret that I cannot be in attendance, but my thoughts will surely be with them."

Rest, Study and Vacation Halseys' Goal in Europe

Proving that a family can combine recreation, rest and study and tour a continent as well, the James H. Halseys, first family of the university will depart June 12 via the Holland American Line's "S. S. Groote Beer," departing from Quebec, for a summer in Europe.

The vacation made possible by the university's sabbatical leave program, will be the Halseys' second trip together to Europe. They made their first voyage in 1949. It will mark the president's sixth trip.

Arriving at Le Havre, France, the Halseys will stop at such places as Paris, the Italian Lakes, the Cathedral at Milano, the art galleries of Florence, and the eternal city - Rome, where "past, present and future merge into one." They will spend some time at Venice, the Riviera, and will travel through the Italian Alps, to Switzerland.

Work Plans Cited

Arriving at the Mac Jannet Camps at Lac d'Annex in the French Alps, the second phase of the Halsey trip will unfold. Pres. and Mrs. Halsey will join the camp as Staff Advisors to the Counselors. James Halsey Jr., a Senior in the College of Arts and Sciences at UB will work at the camp as a counselor. John, the 17 year old Halsey, will serve in the capacity of Junior Counselor, while son George, 11, will be a camper. This stay will last about 5 weeks.

During the summer Pres. Halsey will visit several Universities, including the University of Geneva, University of Paris, University of Pisa, University of Rome, University of Brussels, University of Amsterdam, and the University of Dijon, where Dr. John Rastias, French instructor at the University of Bridgeport spent two years earning his Doctorate degree.

The last week in August, the Halseys will auto to Paris and then will go on to Brussels and Amsterdam. They will sail from Rotterdam on the "MV Sibajak," returning to the United States by the middle of September.

Dig Deep-----

Now is the time for organizations on campus to get out and compete against each other for the title "Kings and Queens of Big Hearts." Campus Chest time is here again, the one occasion each year when UBites are asked to open their hearts and their wallets for the poor and needy. The organization which contributes most generously to the Chest will be awarded a plaque to be displayed in Alumni Hall. We hope that all our fraternities, sororities or clubs will testify to all that we are charitable.

A visit to The Crippled Children's Workshop, the Hall Home or the Red Cross, right in our campus area, will remind us that we are indeed a lucky crew. Look at that little girl with helpless legs, or that little boy with pale face and worn out shoes. Surely these sights make us feel that we can scrounge up a dollar or so by sacrificing an extra hamburger and beer or two, so that the money can be used for someone who needs it so much more than we do.

To use an old, worn-out but apt expression, let's give until it hurts, for the honor of our fraternities or clubs, for the glory of UB, but most of all for that warm feeling we get around our hearts when we do something that is really worth-while.

YOU SAID IT!

By Fran Zirkel and Mel Zimmerman

QUESTION OF THE WEEK —

QUESTION: Do you think that National Fraternities should be allowed on campus?

Definitely yes. This would lead to bigger and more colossal fraternity functions.

"Rocky" Consiglio, Senior —
Co-Captain - Football Team —

Yes! It would attract more students on a national scale and the campus would be greatly enlarged.

Pat Janowski, Freshman —

Emphatically yes. Having fraternity houses on campus would further social activities. A fraternity would mean more than just a name.

Pat Imri, Freshman —

Yes, because there are houses all over the U. S. and you have a chance to associate with people all over the country.

Natalie Fox, Freshman —

Yes. National fraternities would tend to lead to closer coercion among the groups which would inevitably promote more social activities on the campus.

Dear Editor

The recent editorial concerning the Inter-Fraternity Council had as its theme, the fact that the IFC is supposedly undemocratic and inhabited with evil socialistic ogres as its members. The editorial states the proposed punitive measures were instituted by a few without consultation with anyone directly concerned with them. This contention is entirely false and unfounded since the proposed amendments were presented to the IFC members who in turn related them to their respective organizations for discussion, approval or revision. The amendments published in the last issue of the SCRIBE were the result of joint fraternity and sorority action (eleven of them). Is this UNDEMOCRATIC?

It seems that the principle dissonance resulted from one of the proposed amendments, that of being omitted from campus publicity. Since the makers of the SCRIBE were not consulted, they felt hurt because the IFC slighted them. (BOO HOO!) In reply, it must be stated that the head of the Wistarian was consulted, and his approval was received. We did and still do intend to seek the permission of the SCRIBE, since it's not our place to dictate as to the material published in the campus newspaper. The principal thing to keep in mind is that these amendments are tentative and necessitate ultimate approval by all foreign parties concerned. The IFC is aware of this and had every intention of doing so. The purpose of the IFC is to protect its members against an unforeseen infringement of their rights by establishing measures which will discourage any possible violation of the IFC constitution. We are not punishing out of malice, but rather because we feel the need to protect one another. These punishments are severe only to those who are potential violators. So once again may we state that it was not the intention of the IFC to overlook consulting the SCRIBE prior to the final ratification of the amendments and, therefore, do not feel that we have performed any undemocratic action.

Three Records Shattered As Cindermen Defeat Poly

By Larry Babich

Breaking three school records, the University of Bridgeport's track and field team opened the 1954 season by trouncing the Engineers of Brooklyn Poly 64½-48½, last Friday at Seaside Park. The scheduled match against New Britain State Teachers yesterday at the Hardware City was postponed because of rain.

UB Nine Meets Fairfield; Umstadter Downs TCC

Lugg Will Handle Pitching Chores This Afternoon

By Mickey Vail

Dick Lugg will handle the pitching chores as John McKeon's baseball Knights try for their fourth victory of the season and their first on the road, when the Purple and White travel to Fairfield, Conn., this afternoon to tangle with the Red Stags of Fairfield University. A win today would mark the first time a UB baseball team has ever notched four victories in a single season.

Lugg, who owns an impressive 0.90 earned run average will be looking for his second victory against no defeats. The Stags have dropped a 12-6 decision to New Haven Teachers and lost 10-3 to TCC in their games to date.

In an attempt to get more power into the bottom of the batting order, McKeon has revamped his lineup by moving Harry Peters into the leadoff slot and placing Denny Callahan in the sixth slot. The new lineup will read, Peters at third base, Ronnie Krause at second, Joe Marrucco in right field, Dick Giansello behind the plate, Jimmy Davis at short, Callahan in left field, Harry Noyes in center field and Pete Carroll at first base.

Drop TCC 10-4

Nine unearned runs in the first inning and the six hit pitching of "Sleepy" Willie Umstadter gave the Knights their third win as they romped over New Britain Teachers College 10-4 last Saturday at Seaside Park.

Fourteen men came to bat in the zany first frame with the Purple and White collecting only four hits. The Blue Devils committed six errors to give the Knights all of their runs. A base on balls and a balk also added to the goings on.

PURPLE PICKINGS. . . . The trees around the outfield in right field are fast earning the nickname of "Marrucco Gardens" as Joe has polled three line drive doubles there in the last two home games. . . . Willy Umstadter slightly mad at the article in the Bridgeport Post the day of the TCC game, the article said he had three pitches. . . . a slow ball, a slower one and an even slower one.

SOS Lodges Gripe; Katz Scores First In Intramural Play

The Intramural Sport scene last Monday offered three distinctly played games on the part of the six clubs competing.

At diamond no. 1 at Seaside Park, SLX took on APO with the final score ending in favor of Dave Miller and SLX 4-2. The game had the distinction of being the only IM game on record here in which a catcher was accused of throwing beanballs. Yogi Katz was the receiver who beamed an opposing batsman while trying to return the ball to pitcher Dave Miller.

Park Hall lost their first of the year to a surprisingly strong DEB squad, 11-5. Bull Dog Yale did the hurling for DEB while Gordie Robertson supplied the long range power with a home run. Dick Hermann pitched in the losing cause for Park Hall.

SPA won a game from SOS in extra innings but not before SOS lodged a protest with the Athletic Department. In this slugfest Tony DiMatteo beat Ed Geffen 12-10 in 8 innings.

The standings:

American			National
POC	3	0	AGP	3	0
DEB	1	1	Callahan	1	1
Park	2	1	SPA	1	1
SLX	1	2	SOS	1	1
APO	0	3	TS	0	3

Golfers And Netmen Go Down To Defeat

The Purple Knights Golf team along with an unseasoned Tennis squad went down to their second defeat in as many starts last week.

The Linksters met their match as they succumbed to Manhattan College 6-3 on the Fairchild Wheeler Park course, while the Racquetters fell victim to Wesleyan College at Middletown 9-0.

Outstanding golfers for UB were Dick Watt and Jerry Norko who scored all Bridgeport points taken in the match.

The shut out Netmen had little to cheer about except for Jim Faulkner who played a spirited game for the Purple.

Both squads were hampered by the wretched weather as rain fell throughout the meet, but Walt Kondratovich's thinclads still turned in a most impressive performance.

"Clinker", DuBreuil Co-Captains

Alvin Clinkscales and Phil DuBreuil, who were named this year's co-captains before the meet, set two individual records, while the mile relay team set the third mark. The co-captains dominated the scoring as they notched 19 3-4 points between them, with Clinkscales getting 10, high for the meet.

The quick moving Clinkscales zipped around the track in :54 seconds to smash the old record of :56.1 set by Alex Berech in 1950. DuBreuil shattered his own high jump record of 5 feet 10 inches, when he cleared three quarters of an inch more than the mark he set last year.

Dick Cipriani, Dave Deep, Jim Halsey, Jr., and Clinkscales legged it around the track in 3:48.4 to clip :08.6 seconds off the standard established last year.

Dash Men Surprise

Stu Randall captured first and Dick Fresolone, second in the 100 yard dash, while Fresolone came back to take second in the 220 in a surprising display of strength by the short distance men. Clinkscales, in addition to setting the 440 record, also captured a first place in the half mile event.

Curt Grande, Ralph Consiglio, Joe Cirone and Paul Hennion paced the field team which swept all three places in the javelin and broad jump, first, second and a tie for third in the shot put, first and third in the high jump and second and third in the pole vault.

DuBreuil, who placed in each of the five events he entered, took first in the high jump, third places in the discus and broad jump and tied for third in the shot put.

Grande Wins Javilan

Grande took first in the javelin. Consiglio won the broad jump, and Cirone garnered a first in the shot, while Grande took third place in the high jump, Hennion took seconds in the shot and javelin and Hans Schneider placed second in the broad jump and third in the javelin. Roland Emery took second place in the pole vault.

INTRAMURAL SLUGFEST

Last Tuesday in the seventh inning of an Intramural Softball game, which saw SOS leading SPA 10-8, SOS told umpire Jack Liggins that they were protesting the contest on the grounds that SPA pitcher Tony DiMatteo should be removed from the playing field for his actions regarding Gordie Cochrane of SOS. When SOS went on to lose the game 12-10 in extra innings the protest went into effect. Few protests are upheld by the officials of any league, however, this column thinks SOS has a good chance of getting their loss to SPA taken off the books.

THE CASE FOR SOS

While umpire Liggins was trying to decide whether the count was two balls, one strike or two balls, two strikes on Cochrane, an argument as to what the count actually was sprung up between both teams. This brought all 126 lbs. of bespectacled Gordie Cochrane to the mound to confer with umpire Liggins. Also at the mound was SPA pitcher, 220 lbs. "Tough" Tony DiMatteo. From somewhere in the maize of milling ballplayers, who were now circling around the mound, a right hand (closed) which resembled DiMatteo's, struck Cochrane on the left temple just above his glasses. ED NOTE: (220 minus 126 equals 94).

SPA'S SIDE OF THE STORY - (As told by an observer)

Cochrane started for the mound with a not too peaceful tone in his voice as he approached Liggins. To emphasize his point Cochrane raised his hands to both DiMatteo and Liggins but did not move to strike either. DiMatteo grabbed Cochrane by the shirt, Cochrane grabbed DiMatteo by the shirt. Cochrane took a right hand to the left temple thrown by DiMatteo. The game was resumed shortly afterwards. DiMatteo apologized to Cochrane in the next inning.

In the opinion of this column anyone guilty of hitting an opposing player should be immediately ejected from the game by the umpire. The actions, gestures, and language that went on during the SPA-SOS fracas are not the desired product of IM sports. If Cochrane threw a punch at a 30 lb. midget or a 9 foot giant he would be just as guilty of unsportsman-like conduct as DiMatteo.

BRIDGEPORT SHOE SHINE BOYS

In an effort to flex their muscles in a prep for next September, two football players, Bob Mendes and Dick Cipriani will give genuine saliva shines at 30c. a copy to all customers on the Friday before Wistaria Weekend. Shoes will be delivered to all patrons after they are treated by a special process at Park Hall.

HIT-PLAY OF THE WEEK

This week's award of nothing goes to Harry Noyes for his shoestring catch of a line-drive against New Haven State Teachers College. The catch came at a most opportune time for had the ball dropped, the runner would have had two bases and as the next man singled, the Teachers would have had a run.

Joe Marrucco gets the prize for his booming double into "Marrucco Gardens" in the New Britain fracas. Had the trees bordering the field not been there Marrucco's shot would have carried into Long Island Sound.

The Gang At The SEAWALL Says —

YOU CAN'T BEAT THE $1 WEEKEND

SEE YOU THERE

ALONG PARK PLACE

By ANDY DEMOTSES

The Senior Class and the Alumni Association held a meeting last Sunday evening in Alumni Hall to give the near-graduates a look-see into the workings of our Alumni Association.

The evening's discussion seemed to center around plans for the coming Senior Class Weekend to be held June 4, 5, and 6. Still in the formulative stages, the lineup for the three days seems to run as follows: banquet, dance, and a picnic. Looks good!

Tomorrow night begins the "One Dollar Weekend," sponsored jointly by the Social Activities Committee, The Student Spirit Committee, and Alumni Hall Association. Included in the weekend will be the preliminary eliminations for the Wistaria Queen contest. This elimination will be held Saturday night in Alumni Hall, with dancing for all after the judging is complete.

Word comes from New Jersey of the recent engagement of Wistaria's Barbara Burhorn and Peter Van Seutendael of Milford-Hall. . . from Danbury comes the news that Don Heath's wife has recently presented him with a five pound, one ounce baby girl; they named her Donna. Thanks for the cigar, Don. . . Toby Strong still trying to recuperate from the party at his house at the beach during the vacation. . . Everyone had a good time at the party Danny Leeson had at his home in Suffern, New York during the Easter Recess. . . Gil Strunk had quite a time trying to get a flat fixed on a Long Island Parkway, the night of Danny's party. Next time, make sure you have a spare tire.

Words of wisdom from a UB prof, "College students are the only people in the world who pay for something and then do their best to cheat themselves out of it."

The Class of '53 is trying to get a table together for the Alumni gathering to be held May 8 at Champ's Shorehouse. All the past alumni will be there, and this most recent class is attempting to get a 100% turn-out.

Gail Harvey's friends are eagerly awaiting the housewarming party she plans to throw in her new domicile in Stratford. . . Congratulations to the new "One-Day Mayor" of Bridgeport and his able staff. . . Pat Lait announces that there will be a meeting of all those who attended summer school last year in the Club this Friday night (and afternoon too). . . Neil Huber is on his way to Korea with the US Army. . . Only four more weeks of school for those of us who are lucky enough to be Seniors. Come to think of it, only four more weeks of school for everyone. Marina Hall dining students take notice. . . Students at University of Kiel picketed their student dining hall recently in a move for the raising of food quality. The boycott lasted all day. . . Have you seen the new steam table at ye olde dining hall? Really lovely! Now. . . when are they going to turn it on?

Eddie Hall should have talked to the student from Dartmouth College who earned $30 on a bet to swallow a live goldfish. Seems Eddie did it for free at a recent dorm party.

As the end of this school year draws to a close, so comes the end of my column-writing days. Two years have passed from the day of my first attempt, and soon my last will be here. The last issue of the year, I want to take the privilege of reviewing the most important events of the past two years as reported in ALONG PARK PLACE.

Dollar Value Rises As Weekend Begins

For 20 years the dollar has been inflated. In 24 hours, the Social Activities Committee in conjunction with the Alumni Hall Recreation Committee and the Student Spirit Committee will deflate the dollar and give the student body purchasing power of $5.

This first attempt to take over the power of a dollar, begins tomorrow evening, when the "Weekend on a Dollar" officially begins. The film "Julius Caesar" will be shown at 8 P. M. in T-101.

Saturday night eight candidates will be selected from the 21 hopefuls vying for the title of Wistaria Queen. Harry Neigher, Bridgeport Herald columnist; Vincent Weston, professional photographer; and Wes Hobby, WNAB disc jockey will be among the judges in the beauty contest. The student body will cast its votes the following week.

With the various dormitories, fraternities and sororities offering a vaudeville show immediately after the judging, the evening will be concluded by an informal dance. The music will be provided by Art Parisi and his band.

A ping-pong tournament will be one of the attractions Sunday. Contestants may still register until 5 P. M. tomorrow at the Student Activities Office, 2nd floor of Alumni Hall. Prizes will be awarded to 1st and 2nd place winners. Gary Zitomer will officiate the matches.

The dollar weekend will climax with a picnic supper on the lawns of Marina Hall, Sunday evening.

Banquet Tuesday Will Fete Campus And Town Leaders

Eight awards will be presented to outstanding people on campus and in the community at the tri-sponsored Sociology Colloquium, Political Relations Forum, Pi Gamma Mu banquet, Tuesday evening at the Stratfield Hotel

The national honorary social science fraternity, Pi Gamma Mu, will award their honorary membership to Herman Steinkraus, president of the Bridgeport Brass Corp. for outstanding leadership in the community. The guest speaker of the evening, Steinkraus will be presented a scroll by President James H. Halsey.

With President of the Sociology Colloquium Dianne MacDougall making the presentation, Dean Eaton V. W. Read, of the College of Business Administration will be cited for promoting aims of the group on campus. An award will also be made to Horace Ivy, treasurer of the group for service.

The organization will present a scroll to Superintendent of Police, John Lyddy, for "encouragement of sociological principles as applied to the police force." Dianne MacDougall has been named the outstanding leader of the Colloquium and will be awarded at the affair.

Three awards will be presented by Alfred E. Munroe, President of the Political Relations Forum.

Mrs. Malcolm J. Edgerton, technical advisor to the Connecticut Inter-Collegiate Student Legislature will be presented a scroll for her contribution of time and energy toward the education of the mechanics of state government for college students.

For his services rendered "far and above the call of duty," Prof. William T. DeSiero will be cited.

Senior delegate from the University to CISL, Peter Baldino, has been named a recipient of an award for his unselfish contributions to the Political Relations Forum for the year 1953-54.

Council Elections Set

Elections for next year's Student Council will be held the week of May 10. The Political Relations Forum will handle the elections.

Nominations are available in the Student Activities Office, 2nd floor of Alumni Hall. Deadline for these nominations is May 7.

The annual Council dinner will be held May 18, at which time the new Council will take office.

Top Scholars Honored at Dinner Sponsored by UB Council of Deans

Forty University of Bridgeport students, the top ten in each of the freshman, sophomore, junior and senior classes, were honored Friday night at the Sixth Annual Scholars' Dinner at the university's Marina Hall.

Dean Earle M. Bigsbee, Dean of the Junior College of Connecticut, presided over the affair which is sponsored by the Council of Deans. The dinner pays tribute to the students who have earned the highest cumulative grades during their entire stay at the university whether it be one year, two, three or four.

Five of the students in attendance were being honored for the third time, having been accorded the honor during two previous years, while ten were guests for the second time.

James H. Halsey, Jr., son of the university president, has placed highest of all members of the senior class, while George Chamberlain, son of Professor and Mrs. Emerson Chamberlain, a professor of history, was accorded the same stature among the juniors. Richard Friedenthal was high man in the sophomore class with Donald M. Kehoe leading the freshmen.

By departments, the engineering division received the most number of awards, having had nine of their students honored. Physical education and accounting departments each placed five.

Dr. Henry W. Littlefield, vice president of the University, gave the official greetings to the assembled group, while Dr. Eaton V. W. Read, Dean of the College of Business Administration gave the keynote talk entitled "Science and Scientolatory."

Various members of the faculty who have been accorded membership in one of a number of honorary or recognition fraternities were also in attendance at the dinner.

Those students receiving honors for the third time include Kenneth E. Benham, Joyce Cimelus, Abigail Elstein, James Halsey Jr. and Eugene Komarek.

Students being honored for the second time were Geraldine Bennett, Peter M. Berend, Catherine Boyhen, Joan Carlson, George Chamberlain, Marion E. Fry, Louise English, Marvin Gelfand, Robert G. Hoyt and John McCarthy.

Recipients for the first time include Richard Chevalier, William

Drehs, Richard Friedenthal, Edith Hofferma, Natalie Kaplin, Donald M. Kehoe, Rita Lundstrom, Helen Moore, William G. Norton, Neal A. O'Keefe, Theodore Sternklar, Barbara Stohl and Shirley Van Horn.

Also being honored for the first time, but not present Friday were Michael Belmont, Marilyn Case, Henry Cofek, Robert Encke, Harold Frint, Richard Ganesello, Joan Hrivnoch, Richard Lugg, William McCobey, Beatrice Panico, Matthew Smith and Kenneth Wiser.
